Message from a 2012 8-Week Program Student: Ayano Nojiri, Department of Communication

私が海外研修に参加したのは、単に人生経験を積んでおきたかったから。語学力を心配している方、大丈夫です。ホストマザーに「あなた英語専攻じゃないの? チャレンジャーね」と言われたけれど、正直何とかなりました。(笑) だけど現地の人たちや、学校で他国の友達ができると、「言いたいことが言えないもどかしさ」を感じましたね。もっとみんなとおしゃべりしたい、その人のこと、国のことが知りたいという気持ちが、私の英語に対する意識を変えました。軽い気持ちで参加した海外研修でしたが、いつもと違う世界に飛び込んだことで、毎日刺激的でした。行けば必ず「日本に帰りたくない!」って思いますよ!

「Tech Talk - How to use iPads in class -」 — 公開講座

On Saturday, June 29th Mr. Matthew Cook from the Osaka Board of Education gave a seminar at the English Education Center. The title of the seminar was: Tech Talk – How to use iPads in class – . A number of teachers from around Fukui attended the seminar. In the first half of the seminar, Mr. Cook went through the basics of iPad usage. He highlighted several of the iPads lesser-known but very convenient functions. For example, participants learned how to take a screenshot, use the text-to-speech function and retrieve images from the Internet. In the second half of the seminar, by creating their own presentations, all of the participants were able to put into use what they had learned beforehand. Many of the seminar's attendees commented positively on Mr. Cook's easy-to-understand instructions and his warm presentation style. The English Education Center hopes to have similar events like this one in the future.
